Day 2, Mumbai / Nagpur / Kanha

Take the morning flight to Nagpur; and drive to the Kanha National Park from there.

Kanha is one of India's largest national parks, covering 1945 km² and was one of the first nine reserves selected for the Project Tiger in 1973. Around 25 species of animals are regularly spotted in the central parklands, and the highly endangered barasingha is found in many parts of the jungle, as are over 200 species of birds.

'The Jungle Book' author Rudyard Kipling found inspiration here and when you need a tiger fix, this park offers as close to a guarantee as you'll get. Approximately 125 tigers reside in the park, and guides spend considerable amounts of time scouting their locations. Good viewing months are from March to June; the park closes from June to mid October.

Arrive at Kanha in the evening and check in to your tented suite at the 'Banjaar Tola' lodge. Meet your expert naturalist, who will give you a full orientation of what to expect on your safari drives into the jungle. Take time off to unwind before you get ready for cocktails and dinner around the bonfire.

OVERNIGHT - BANJAAR TOLA

Day 3, Kanha

Go for an early morning game drive through the jungle, in modified safari vehicles. Return to the lodge for a quiet breakfast beside the river.

Spend the rest of the morning at the lodge. The tented suites are set along the banks of the Banjar River, overlooking the core area of the Kanha National Park. Wide glass doors open onto private decks overlooking the river, offering panoramic views of the wilderness beyond.

Have lunch at the lodge and head out for another round of the game drive into the jungle.

Have cocktails and dinner at the poolside deck.

Day4, Kanha

Go for an early morning bird watching tour in the company of a resident naturalist. Try your luck at spotting Kanha's ten Star Birds among the more than 200 bird species in the Park.

Have breakfast in the woods, and return to the lodge for the afternoon. Spend time by the pool or browsing the safari shop.

Go on a game safari in the evening. Pause at sunset point to watch the sun sinking down over the jungle and enjoy a thirst-quenching cocktail.

Return to the lodge for a special dinner in a surprise location.

Day 5, Kanha / Raipur / Delhi

Have an early breakfast and drive to Raipur to board the flight to Delhi.

You will arrive in Delhi in the evening, and will be transferred to 'The Imperial' hotel. Have dinner at the hotel.

In 'New Delhi', drive past the Parliament House, the Presidential Palace - Rashtrapati Bhawan and 'India Gate' - all built during British rule. India Gate is the famous war memorial dedicated to martyrs of World War I.

Visit one of the country's most striking monuments

- the 70-meter high Qutab Minar – that marked the site of the first Muslim kingdom in Northern India, in the 12th century. It is, at present, the tallest brick minaret in the world.

Also see Humayun's Tomb, the first ever

Mughal garden tomb to be constructed in the subcontinent. Visitors are immediately struck by the tomb's resemblance to its more famous cousin - the Taj Mahal.

Visit the Taj Mahal and the Red fort.

Taj Mahal: One of the Seven Wonders of the World, built by Emperor Shah Jehan in memory of his beloved consort Mumtaz Mahal, this beautiful mausoleum is made of white marble and is an architectural masterpiece.

Agra Fort: Built by

Emperor Akbar in 1565, the fort was principally a military structure, but had partially become a palace by Shah Jehan's time.
